
Courtesy of the Science History Institute, prepared July 12, 2022 21:52 UTC

Translated by Jocelyn R. McDaniel

English Translation

Copy

American Express Company

International Freight Forwarding
Division of Freight Forwarding
G-E 965

Berlin W8
73 Unter den Linden

Berlin, March 25, 1928

Professor Dr. G. Bredig
Karlsruhe / Baden

Bahnhofstrasse 14

Re: AMX 6575 / 77 – 3 Boxes of Personal Effects to Dr. Max Bredig, Ann Arbor, Michigan, USA

We are writing today in reference to your letter from February 2nd of this year regarding the above shipment, which was forwarded to New York and Ann Arbor on February 2nd. The key was sent with the documents to New York and should undoubtedly be, together with the shipment, in the possession of the recipient.

With regards to Mr. Max Bredig’s remaining balance of 310 Reichsmarks, we request that you inform us if another shipment is to be expected. Otherwise, we will be forced to deposit this amount into a new blocked account under Mr. Max Bredig’s name, for which we would have to obtain the approval of the foreign exchange office beforehand.

The amount could also be paid to you in the form of a gift if we receive instructions from the customer. However, in this case, we must also obtain approval from the foreign exchange office. We await your decision.

(signature)