Dear Mr. Bredig,

Thank you very much for your letters from December 20th and 21st. We were only able to find out yesterday through our intermediary that Mr. Warburg finally sent the affidavit for Viktor and Marianne too. I don't know when, but it has been sent. Couldn't the good man have let the gentleman know? This would have saved us all from the anxiety and telegram costs. Well, let's be glad that it's true and hope that everything works out now.

Unfortunately, in your last letters, you did not specify when and where you can be reached in New York. I will write to both addresses. I just have to ask you to eventually return the pink sheet to me, because unfortunately I didn't write two copies.

As soon as you are in New York, please call us. Phone: Boulevard 8-0419.

Otherwise, if we don't speak to each other beforehand, I wish you all the best for the new year.

Kind regards,

Fridel G. Halstead
